

HailHare (rigorously styled in Arial; usually abbreviated with HH) started in 2009 as FCI affix.

It now mostly focuses on the fan fiction genre, seen as a way to break free from mass entertainment's established cliches.

The project @surfandground (2016 - ongoing), a fan-generated fan fiction started on the homonymous IG account, is HH's current mainstay, with two published volumes per year.

HH is open to the publication of other writers' fictions.
